See Brent Green: A Brief Spark Bookended by Darkness

Horror, intensity, and mad fun.

This gallery has been quietly great for well over a decade and is key in bringing scores of so-called outsider artists to light. Witness Brent Green's wild objects — full-size pseudo-garments that become angelic or demonic when they're put on. Elaborate animated films combined with puppeteer figures give us an original artist equally at home with sculpture, drawing, and fantasy. —Jerry Saltz

Andrew Edlin Gallery, 212 Bowery, through April 28.
