

JUL 20

Mirror Mirror Man launches the Declaration of Interdependence.

To mark the occasion of their recent re-opening, Andrew Edlin Gallery welcomed the Brooklyn-based reality hacker and provocateur, David Henry Nobody Jr. With a flurry of death metal jams, a ramshackle stage of mylar, a frenzied futurist uniform, and with help from dark metal wizard guitarist Jack Thomas Florio, David Henry Nobody Jr. preformed his newest Remsemblagè entitled Mirror Mirror Man on the Bowery.

Providing a profound reflection on this historical moment, Mirror Mirror Man asked its audience on the Bowery to take more consideration for each other. “In order to survive we’ll have to reflect each other much more so than we are,” says Brown. “Thus the Declaration of Interdependence.”